

Learner Strategic Advisor – Role Profile

Purpose

The Learner Strategic Advisor will support the Learner Journey and Experience team with thought leadership and expertise in the design, development and implementation of learner journey and experience strategy, policy and procedures key to advancing learner success.

Be

- Passionate in the continuous pursuit of enabling ākonga/learners success; importantly for our underserved learners
- Highly adaptive and willing to apply your skills and contribution to a wide range of diverse needs
- Committed to and capable of partnering with others
- Committed to the Reform of Vocational Education and the Charter of Te Pūkenga
- Consciously aligning their and our deliverables to Te Pae Tawhiti (Tiriti Excellence Framework)
- Committed to continuous improvement, and comfortable with data interpretation
- A confident, values-based team player with a good sense of humour and excellent communication and interpersonal skills
- A life-long learner, continuously seeking development of oneself
- Self-motivated and able to ensure work deliverables and benefits are met, within timeframes and to budget

Do

- Provide thought leadership and expertise in the design, development and implementation of learner journey and experience strategy and policy
- Engage with varied and diverse levels of stakeholders and partners to remain informed, build collaborations, and deliver relevant strategy and policy developments
- Apply critical thinking and advice to contribute to advancement in practice and delivery aligned with the Learner Journey and Experience team strategy and policy
- Monitor and identify key trends, issues, or concerns for further strategy and/or policy development, making recommendations on this to the Kaikōkiri Director Learner Strategy and Experience
- Ensure that the Learner Journey and Experience team and Te Pūkenga are well informed and equipped to provide leadership and/or advice on appropriate policy, projects and programmes
- Provide advice on the direction and/or scope of policy and strategic projects including guidance on methodologies, techniques and procedures

Have

- Extensive Advisory experience perhaps from a policy, strategy, governance or legal background
- Demonstrated experience in establishing wellbeing and outcomes-based frameworks; particularly with diverse groups/communities
- A proven and successful record of researching, developing, managing and delivering policy and strategy advice at a senior level
- Ability to understand Government policy priorities and apply these to Te Pūkenga
- Strong interpersonal skills with the ability to build highly credible professional relationships
- Ideally, experience working on large scale, complex change and transformation projects
- Excellent relationship management skills, in particular the ability to engage and influence both internal and external stakeholders
- Solid organisational skills including attention to detail and multi-tasking skills
- A positive, can-do, “roll-up the sleeves” attitude